

What is an

Occupational Licence?

You need to obtain a Fire Protection Occupational licence if you intend to carry out fire protection work for a licensed fire protection contractor either as an employee or subcontractor.

What are the required

Qualifications?

Current qualifications:

1. Certificate III in Carpentry CPC30220; or
2. Certificate III in Wall and Ceiling Lining CPC31220

Specific Passive Fire Units:

1. Install dry wall passive fire-rated systems CPCCWC3003;
2. Identify, inspect and test fire and smoke doors CPPFES2035;
3. Identify, inspect and test passive fire and smoke containment products and systems CPPFES2039;

Price:

$1,100.00 (Plus GST), with up to $872.00 CSQ
Funding available to eligible students.

Course Details:

Self paced pre-course assessment
1 Day Face to Face training Session

What if I

Do not have a current Cert III?

In order to obtain your Occupational Licence you will need an in date Carpentry or Wall & Ceiling Lining Certificate.

Recognition of Prior Learning

If you have working experience in the Industry NICS may be able to help RPL (Recognition of Prior Learning) your skills and knowledge into a qualification.

Call 1300 00 NICS or email admin@nics.com.au for more information.